Lezant Parish War Memorial... Roll of Honour

6. Lezant Parish Roll of Honour

The following list has been compiled by applying what appears to have been the general criteria used to decide the names included on the parish war memorial; it records the men and women associated with the parish who saw service during the First World War and survived the conflict.

The qualifying criteria being applied being that they were either born in the parish, or they or their next of kin/dependents, were normally residing in the parish around the time of their service.
